When I came to Poznań I knew only three phrases in Polish 'Hello,' 'Goodbye,' and 'Thank you.' I was afraid of how I would be able to cope with the language and life here. I didn't know anybody. My family was in Russia, very far away. Yet, I was determined to stay and begin my studies in Poznań. The first months were tough, but it wasn't long before I made new friends. They helped me to accommodate and made missing my family and relatives more bearable.
